Present's Its Monthly Book Review & Best Sellers List

Julia De Burgos, born in Puerto Rico in 1914, an accomplished poet and journalist was revolutionary in her politics, poetry and feminism. De Burgos is a cultural icon and was shamefully neglected as a poet. She died in New York City in 1953 but did not leave us without a mark of her ingenious. "Song Of The Simple Truth," (published by Curbstone Press) is compiled and translated by author Jack Agueros, and until now have been a hidden treasure. Enjoy the jewels of 200 poems in this literary landmark filled with romance and activism.
