Puerto Rican Indian Wars: Part II

One of New York's best know Taíno Native American story tellers and lecturers, Bobby González has written a collection of poems and short stories about the Native American experience from a Taíno perspective, Puerto Rican Indian Wars: Part II.

Published by Galería Cemí Press, the book features a variety of poems taken directly from myths, legends and traditions bequeathed to us by the Taíno Indians who inhabit the major Caribbean Islands of Puerto Rico, Dominican Republic/Haiti, Cuba, Jamaica and the Bahamas. Although not a scholarly work, Puerto Rican Indian Wars: Part II is a great source of information and inspiration about the legends of the Native Americans who greeted Columbus more than 500 years ago.

Puerto Rican Indian Wars: Part II sells for $5 and is available by mail from Galería Cemí, 327 East 149th Street, Suite 331, Bronx, NY 10451. It is also available at Agueybaná Bookstore: 192 Avenue B, at 12th Street, Lower East Side, (212) 539-1662; and the Puerto Rican Workshop: 1685 Lexington Avenue, corner of 106th Street, El Barrio. (212) 831-4333.
